READINGS

Job 23.1-9,16-17

Then Job answered: 'Today also my complaint is bitter; his hand is heavy despite my groaning. O that I knew where I might find him, that I might come even to his dwelling! I would lay my case before him, and fill my mouth with arguments. I would learn what he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me. Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No; but he would give heed to me. There an upright person could reason with him, and I should be acquitted for ever by my judge. 'If I go forward, he is not there; or backward, I cannot perceive him; on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him; I turn to the right, but I cannot see him. God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me; If only I could vanish in darkness, and thick darkness would cover my face!

Psalm 22.1-10

(APBA p241)

Hebrews 4.12-16

Indeed, the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Mark 10.17-31

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, 'Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: "You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother." ' He said to him, 'Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.' Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, 'You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!' And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, 'Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' They were greatly astounded and said to one another, 'Then who can be saved?' Jesus looked at them and said, 'For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.' Peter began to say to him, 'Look, we have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age - houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions - and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.'

AREA CHANGES FOR THE DIOCESE:

St Paul's Canterbury is now part of the Archdeaconry of Box Hill (previously Kew).

Our 'region' as it was once called, is now Jumbunna Episcopate.

Our Archdeacon is Ian Morrison, vicar of Holy Trinity, Surrey Hills.

Our Bishop is Paul White.

I continue as Area Dean of Waverley. Susanne.

Archbishop Philip writes:

"Each area will be called an Episcopate, the names are: Marimingatha Episcopate with the meaning of - divine, supreme being (Bishop Genieve); Jumbunna Episcopate with the meaning of - speaking out, proclamation (Bishop Paul); Oodthenong Episcopate with the meaning of - gathering (Bishop Philip). I have discussed their use with Aunty Di Kerr of the Wurundjeri people as they are in her ancestral Woi Wurrung language. She was happy to give her support for this initiative. All together the three words Marimingatha, Jumbunna and Oodthenong convey the meaning of our vision statement "Making the Word of God, fully known" from Colossians: 1.25.

Lek Koswig and Kevin Crinks are thrilled to announce their forthcoming wedding here at St Paul's on Sunday 1 November 2015 (All Saints' Day) at 3pm.

We would love our parish family to join us in a service of Holy Communion and Prayer, followed by a champagne afternoon tea in the hall.
